

NHS Research Scotland Mental Health Annual Scientific Meeting 'Balancing viewpoints: Rights, Data and Empowerment'

COSLA Conference Centre, Haymarket Yards, Edinburgh, 7th November 2024

10.00 Dr Donald MacIntyre Welcome 10.10 Dame Professor Anna Dominiczak Opening address 10:30 Dr Rob Waller, Kathy Harrison & Dr Elvina Gountouna The challenges and options when using routine data to support mental health research 10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Act • Professor Colin McKay SIDMA and capacity – what next? Session Chair Lucy Mulvagh
10:30 Dr Rob Waller, Kathy Harrison & Dr Elvina Gountouna The challenges and options when using routine data to support mental health research 10:55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12:00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Health Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair Session Chair Session Chair Session Chair
Opening address 10:30 Dr Rob Waller, Kathy Harrison & Dr Elvina Gountouna The challenges and options when using routine data to support mental health research 10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
10:30 Dr Rob Waller, Kathy Harrison & Dr Elvina Gountouna The challenges and options when using routine data to support mental health research 10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
The challenges and options when using routine data to support mental health research 10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair health research 10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
10.55 Professor Deborah Cairns The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay Nagore Penad
The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay The Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory: Addressing the health health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities 11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
11:20 Comfort break and poster presentations 12.00 • Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Health Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
 Dr Roisin Mooney CO-PACT Study Mental Professor Liz Hughes Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
CO-PACT Study Mental Health Act CO-PACT Study Professor Liz Hughes Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
 Mental Health Act Professor Liz Hughes Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
Health Act Understanding how police respond to mental health concerns • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
Act • Professor Colin McKay Session Chair
SIDMA and canacity – what next?
Graham Morgan
Involving people with lived experience of mental ill health in discussions and research around mental health legislation:
barriers and solutions
Followed by a panel discussion
1.15 Lunch and poster presentations
2.15 Dr Thomas Ward
Optimising AVATAR therapy for people who hear distressing voices:
learning from the AVATAR2 trial 2.40 Dr Premal Shah Session Chair
The explosion in adult ADHD assessment demand - a perfect public Andy Siddaway empowerment storm?
3.05 Dr Mark McCann
Systems, social networks and mental health 3.30 Comfort break and poster presentations
4.05 Dr Veenu Gupta
Supporting and Empowering the Lived Experience Workforce: Session Chair
Reflecting on the Past, Being Present, and Looking to the future Sean Harper
4.30 Dr Donald MacIntyre
Poster prizes & closing remarks